OUR MISSION

The Legal Aid Foundation of Colorado promotes equal access to justice by raising funds to provide civil legal services for low-income people in the state of Colorado.

Dear Friends,

Federal funding for civil legal aid is once again under assault. The Trump Administration has proposed elimination of the Legal Services Corporation (LSC), which is the nation's single largest funder of legal aid for low-income Americans. It accounts for fully 40 percent of Colorado Legal Services’ annual budget. Although the proposal for total elimination does not appear to be carrying the day, the House Appropriations Committee has approved a 25 percent cut in LSC’s already-inadequate budget and, at this point, it’s anyone’s guess as to how that will be reconciled with the Senate Appropriation Committee’s call for level funding.

Thankfully, your commitment to equal justice has not wavered. Indeed, the success of our 2016–2017 Campaign for Justice, and the incredible loyalty reflected in the following pages, clearly demonstrates that your commitment is stronger than ever.

You are standing firm for families facing wrongful evictions or foreclosures.

You are standing firm for women trapped in abusive relationships.

You are standing firm for veterans denied rightfully earned benefits.

Justice depends on having a fair chance to be heard, regardless of who you are, where you live, or how much money you have. On behalf of all the Coloradans who, by virtue of your commitment and generosity, have been given that chance, thank you for standing firm for justice. Thank you for supporting Legal Aid.

“If we are to keep our democracy, there must be one commandment: thou shalt not ration justice.”
— Judge Learned Hand
Your contributions to the Legal Aid Foundation support the work of Colorado Legal Services (CLS), the only agency in the state that provides free civil legal aid to indigent clients in every Colorado county. CLS provides necessary legal assistance to Coloradans in the greatest economic and social need.

In 2016, CLS closed 7,495 cases, benefiting 16,339 low-income Coloradans. CLS also stretched its limited resources with technology, pro se materials, self help programs, clinics, and pro bono programs to serve many more.

Colorado Legal Services operates 13 offices throughout Colorado, providing free civil legal assistance to those who would not otherwise have access to the justice system.

Supporters of Legal Aid are characterized not only by their generosity, but by their loyalty.

Thank you to the 79 individual donors who have given to Legal Aid for more than 30 years (denoted in the following pages by ++), and to the 176 individual donors who have given for more than 20 years (denoted in the following pages by +).

A very special thank you to the two donors who have given every single year, since Legal Aid was founded in 1981 — Joe Meyer and Howard Rosenberg.

“My loyalty stems from the fact that Legal Aid was my first professional home. I was a staff attorney for my first four years out of law school and then on the Board for about 20 years after that. The work was meaningful and satisfying, if sometimes frustrating.”

— Joe Meyer

“As lawyers, we are acutely aware of the never-ending struggle to provide poor people access to the legal system, and especially in these very uncertain political times, the Legal Aid Foundation continues to provide essential assistance and support in that struggle. “

— Howard Rosenberg

The Legal Aid Foundation is grateful for supporters who have undertaken generous and creative ways to magnify their support for equal justice, including the following:

- Aaron Goldhamer, who celebrated his birthday this year, in part, by suggesting contributions to Legal Aid in lieu of birthday gifts;
- Josh Berry & Bridget Dyer and Raphaela Lipinsky DeGette & John Fisher, who suggested contributions to Legal Aid in lieu of wedding gifts;
- Chris Ford, who routinely asks his family to contribute to Legal Aid in lieu of holiday gifts; and
- Doyle Inn of Court, Lauren Schmidt & Eric Olson, and Senator Irene Aguilar, all of whom added a fundraising component for Legal Aid to an event or gathering that was primarily organized for another purpose.

Josh and Bridget Berry’s wedding: “Bridget and I love supporting the Legal Aid Foundation and Colorado Legal Services. We donate as often as we can, but cannot make large one-time donations. Identifying the Foundation on our registry and asking guests to make a donation in lieu of gifts allowed us to do that. More importantly, it introduced our friends and family to the organization we love and support.”

Aaron Goldhamer’s birthday celebration: “My friends know I care deeply about the Legal Aid Foundation and am not a big birthday-present kind of guy, so it seemed like a natural fit to rally people I care about around a cause I care about.”
SPECIAL THANKS

A SEASON TO BID
Thank you to the Colorado Bar Association's 2016 COBALT Class, which raised funds for Legal Aid as its required service project by hosting an online auction for tickets to a variety of concerts and sporting events.

GENEROUS RENT ABATEMENT
Thank you to the Colorado and Denver Bar Associations for the their generous rent abatement decisions for the last five years, preserving valuable resources to help meet the civil legal needs of Colorado’s most vulnerable citizens.

FOOD WINE JAZZ ART IN BOULDER
Thank you to the Boulder County Bar Association, which for the last 16 years, under the outstanding leadership of Christine Hylbert, has raised funds for Legal Aid with an annual wine tasting event. Thank you to the BCBA, its staff, and all the volunteers, sponsors and attendees who contributed to the success of this year’s event.
